

Access and Inclusion A Local Government perspective

Jenny Petri, Access and Inclusion Officer

Who is affected and why?

P. J. Moreno

Interpreter

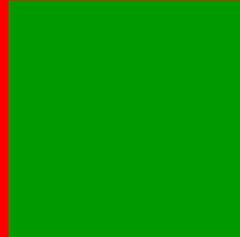

CREATORS
OF GREAT
WEBSITES

Effective Contrast

Not as effective Contrast

Local Government have a unique role in the inclusion of people with disability within the organisation and within the community.

Inclusion through local government helps ensure that all people are welcomed, valued and included in all aspects of the organisation, services and facilities.

Stirling profile

Over 210,000 residents

Over 2,000 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander residents

46% of the population were born overseas

34% speak a language other than English

15.4% of the population aged 65 years and over

Over 8,000 residents need assistance with core activities

13% of the population provide unpaid assistance to a person with disability

Over 30 disability services and more than 50 group homes

Over 36,000 people without internet access

How does the City of Stirling support our community?

Find us on facebook | www.stirling.wa.gov.au

Find us on facebook
www.stirling.wa.gov.au

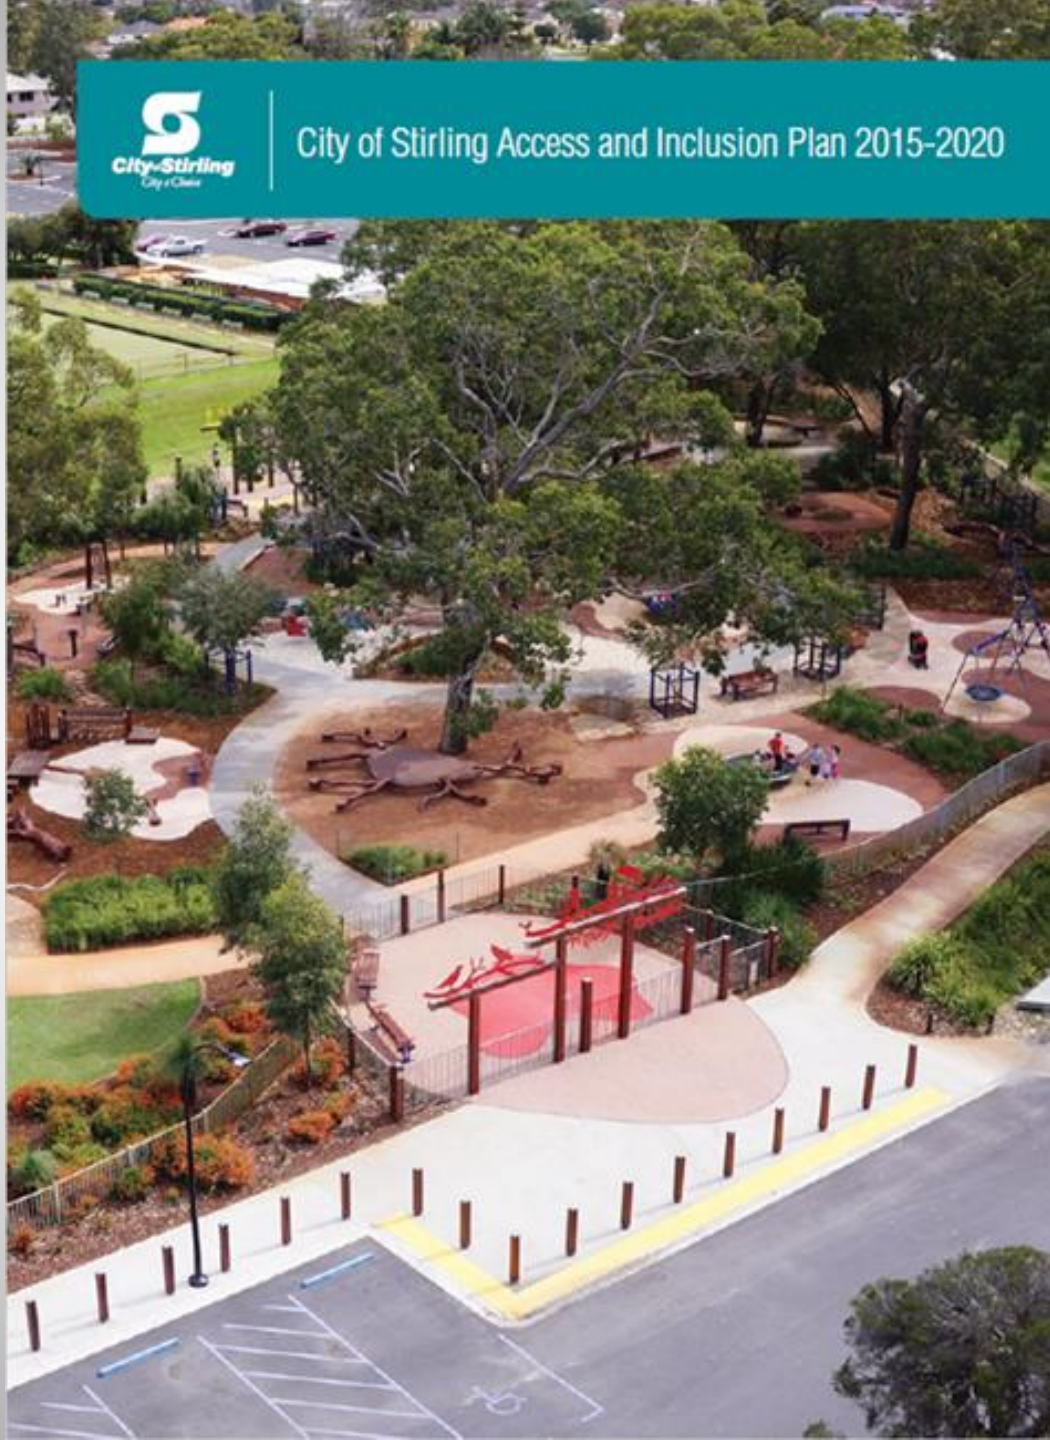

COMMUNITY SERVICES

Strengthening families and community
(08) 9205 8555 | www.stirling.wa.gov.au

City of Stirling Access and Inclusion Plan 2015-2020

Community Services Mission Statement

To provide inclusive opportunities, welcoming places and engaging programs which strengthen community connections and build capacity.

S
City of Stirling
City of Stirling

300

Being green is now multi-colored

Find out more about changes to City of Stirling waste collection at www.stirling.gov.uk

metros

Access and Inclusion – so much more than compliance

Reasonable Adjustments

Personal Care. Auslan (Australian Sign Language).

Watch later

Share

This is a designated RECHARGE Point™ for electric mobility scooters and wheelchairs.

Recharge Point

As part of our ongoing service to the community, the City of Stirling is pleased to invite you to use this station to recharge your gopher or other electronic mobility device.

For other recharge locations visit www.rechargescheme.org.au

It starts with an idea

Chatter that matters!

To have your say, please visit Your Say Stirling

<https://yoursay.stirling.wa.gov.au/AIP> and complete the online Survey or tell us your story using the 'Story' tool.

There are only two options:
Make progress or make excuses.

Thank you